The Filipino American Chamber of Commerce of Santa Clara County provides assistance to Filipino and minority-led businesses. Services are funded through the City of San Jose and through the support of its membership. The Filipino chamber primarily promotes trade between the Philippines and the United States. It offers country information and links business to their respective counterparts in the two countries. It provides business information, referrals and assists in trade finance. It also offers distance learning courses. The chamber collaborates with various ethnic chambers and the U.S. Department of Commerce on catalogue shows and trade missions. The FACC is also actively involved with the Philippine Department of Trade & Industry on trade-related projects and hosts trade visits.

The SBA's primary role is to encourage export trade financing through the banking system with the support of its Export Working Capital Guaranty Program (EWCP). Through this program, working capital up to $1 million is available for preshipment or post-shipment working capital needs. Financing may be used to support single export transactions or to establish revolving lines of credit. The proceeds also can be used to support stand-by letters of credit. In addition, longterm financing is available through the SBA's International Trade Loan program, for firms expanding facilities because of growing exports of for firms that have been adversely impacted by imports.

OFAC - Office of Foreign Office Control

The Office of Foreign Assets Control ('OFAC') of the US Department of the Treasury administers and enforces economic and trade sanctions based on US foreign policy and national security goals against targeted foreign countries, terrorists, international narcotics traffickers, and those engaged in activities related to the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction. OFAC acts under Presidential wartime and national emergency powers, as well as authority granted by specific legislation, to impose controls on transactions and freeze foreign assets under US jurisdiction.

Oversee Drivete Investment Compretion (ODIC)

Overseas Frivate investment corporation (OFIC)

The Overseas Private Investment Corporation (OPIC) is a development agency of the U.S. government. OPIC helps U.S. businesses invest overseas by providing political risk insurance, and financing through direct loans and loan guaranties. It offers streamlined processing for small companies through the OPIC Small Business Center. OPIC-assisted projects may also provide export markets for U.S.-based suppliers.

Trade Compliance Center

The Trade Compliance Center (TCC), in the U.S. Department of Commerce's International Trade Administration, is the U.S. Government's focal point for monitoring foreign compliance with trade agreements to see that U.S. firms and workers get the maximum benefits from these agreements. The TCC is your one-stop shop for getting U.S. government assistance in resolving the trade barriers or unfair situations you encounter in foreign markets.

International Trade Administration, Trade Information Center

The Trade Information Center (TIC) is a comprehensive resource for information on all U.S. Federal Government export assistance programs. The Center is operated by the International Trade Administration of the U.S. Department of Commerce for the 20 federal agencies comprising the Trade Promotion Coordinating Committee (TPCC). These agencies are responsible for managing the U.S. Government's export promotion programs and activities.

U.S. State Department

The Department of State is the lead US foreign affairs agency, and the Secretary of State is the President's principal foreign policy adviser. The Department advances US objectives and interests in shaping a freer, more secure, and more prosperous world through its primary role in developing and implementing the President's foreign policy. The State Department website also provides critical travel information and advisories for U.S. citizens/residents traveling abroad.

The USAID has been the principal U.S. agency to extend assistance to countries recovering from disaster, trying to escape poverty, and engaging in democratic reforms.

USAID is an independent federal government agency that receives overall foreign policy guidance from the Secretary of State. USAID supports long-term and equitable economic growth and advances U.S. foreign policy objectives by supporting economic growth, agriculture and trade, global health, democracy, conflict prevention and humanitarian assistance.

USTDA - U.S. Trade Development Administration

USTDA's mission is to advance economic development and U.S. commercial interests in developing and middle-income countries. To this end, the agency funds various forms of technical assistance, investment analysis, training, orientation visits and business workshops that support the development of a modern infrastructure and a fair and open trading environment.

USTR - U.S. Trade Representative

The Office of the United States Trade Representative (USTR) is an agency of over 200 people, a highly committed group of professionals who have decades of specialized experience in trade issues and regions of the world. They negotiate directly with foreign governments to create trade agreements, resolve disputes and participate in global trade policy organizations. They also meet with governments, business groups, legislators and public interest groups to gather input on trade issues and explain the President's trade policy positions.

The World Trade Organization

The World Trade Organization (WTO) is the only global international organization dealing with the rules of trade between nations. At its heart are the WTO agreements, negotiated and signed by the bulk of the world's trading nations and ratified in their parliaments. The goal is to help producers of goods and services, exporters, and importers conduct their business.

The World Customs Organization

The World Customs Organization (WCO) is an independent, inter-governmental organization that works to improve the effectiveness and efficiency of customs administration among its members worldwide in order to promote fair and equitable international trade.

The World Bank

The World Bank is a vital source of financial and technical assistance to developing countries around the world. The Bank is made up of two unique development institutions owned by 184 member countries, the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development (IBRD) and the International Development Association (IDA). Each institution plays a different but supportive role in the Bank's mission of global poverty reduction and the improvement of living standards. The IBRD focuses on middle income and creditworthy poor countries, while IDA focuses on the poorest countries in the world. Together the Bank provides low-interest loans, interest-free credit and grants to developing countries for education, health, infrastructure, communications and many other purposes.

NEW YORK COUNTY CHAMBER DIRECTORY - NEW YORK

The COSIS New York - New York County Chamber of Commerce Directory is a managed directory of all the Chambers of Commerce that we are aware of for New York County, New York. All the listings in this directory have been verified by phone, instant message, U.S mail or email.

Permission is hereby granted to link to or use the information in this directory if a link to the relevant page in our site is given. For instance the State Level Page, a County Level Page, or a Chamber Profile Page.

If you are the owner, administrator or otherwise executive of a Chamber of Commerce listed in this directory, you are more than welcome to associate yourself with your chamber, to provide updates, descriptions or join our executive roundtable of Chamber "Best Practices".

To join the Round Table, simply find your Chamber of Commerce and click the "Join the Roundtable" link. We will then verify your identity, and approve your access.

If you are the executive of a Chamber of Commerce that is NOT listed in our National Directory, please click the "Add My Chamber" link at the bottom of the Directory Page.
